OUR PHILOSOPHY

We believe that the practice of law is a customer service profession and we strive to serve our clients, our community and our profession with honesty and integrity.

Our goal is to apply skill, hard work and common sense to solve the real world problems faced by those we represent.

We measure our success in the satisfaction of the clients we serve.

“Our clients get to work with real people. I know our clients appreciate our down-to-earth approach and feel comfortable with us,” notes Attorney Lauren E. Dobrowalski.

Attorney Dobrowalski enjoys her interaction with clients and she works hard to earn their trust. Her efforts include a meticulous attention to case detail. “Lauren has become a client favorite. She combines her responsiveness and a disciplined approach to her cases with good-natured wit and personality,” notes Harry Cardoni, “she really appreciates the need to keep her clients informed.” According to Attorney Dobrowalski, “no client question is unimportant.”

Attorney Dobrowalski’s artful combination of oral presentation skills and writing abilities makes her unique. With insight acquired as a former law clerk, she is often sought out to brief and argue cases before the Appellate Courts. Time and again, she has demonstrated the focus and clarity necessary to successfully present appellate issues. “To prepare an appellate brief or to argue before an appellate court is a wonderful opportunity to participate in shaping the law in Pennsylvania,” states Attorney Dobrowalski. “It’s incredibly rewarding to become part of that process.”

Lauren E. Dobrowalski specializes in insurance defense, civil litigation, appellate practice and personal injury. She is a graduate of Muhlenberg College and The Dickinson School of Law where she served as Articles’ Editor for The Dickinson Journal of International Law. She has served as a law clerk to The Honorable Jerome T. Cheslock for the Court of Common Pleas of Monroe County. She is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Defense Institute.
